Worcester, Tuesday,

Dear Anna

Thanks for yr. note
— we think you had better come Friday, I will meet you at 2.
Mary says — pray bring some books.

I hv. had some good letters of sympathy — the best from Charles Higginson, who wishes to bear part of the expense of my trial & Encloses $ 30.

beside a check on John for $100 more — he being about to start for 5 or 6 weeks fishing down East. It is done in such a manly way, it delighted me, — though the Vigilance Committee in Boston wish to take the expense of the trials, & I have not decided how to arrange about it; but the offer is good & I shall use the $30 for some trip, at any rate.

Ever appreciated

T. W. Higginson
